

Prof Arnaud VILLERS MD, PhD

DOB : 24, March, 1959

e-mail : arnaud.villers@univ-lille.fr

Service d'Urologie Andrologie, Transplantation Rénale CHU Lille, University Lille Nord de France, F-59000 Lille, France
Univ. Lille, CNRS, Inserm, CHU Lille, UMR9020-U1277 - CANTHER - Cancer Heterogeneity Plasticity and Resistance to Therapies, F-59000 Lille, France

I am ARTP Member since 1992 and candidate this year to ARTP board of directors (CA)

Education & Training:

Prof Arnaud Villers qualified in medicine in 1982 at Medical University of Paris. He did his residency at Medical University of Paris, Bichat University Hospital with Prof L. Boccon-Gibod and was qualified in general surgery and urology in 1992. He did a research fellowship in 1987-1989 in the department of Urology at Stanford University Medical Center with Prof T.A. Stamey and J.E. McNeal. He obtained a PhD in 1991.

Research Interests:

Main topic of expertise and publications are in the field of localized prostate cancer. This topic includes natural history, morphogenesis, treatments and relevance of prostate zonal anatomy to the development of prostate cancer. Investigator in prostate MRI evaluation including validation, biopsy indication and partial treatment.

Main investigator of the french participation of the ERSPC (European Randomised Study of Prostate Cancer Screening)

Participant in international Global Action Program 3 on Active surveillance with Movember

Expert member SAPEA, Science Advice for Policy by European Academies. (2022). Improving cancer screening in the European Union. Berlin: SAPEA. Release March 2022

AUA international member since 1992

EAU member since 1994

AFU Board Elected 1992-2004

SIU French delegate and deputy delegate since 2002. Treasurer since 2013-2015.

AAEU (Academic Association of European Urologist) member since 2006

AAGUS (American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons) member in 2016